

Intercessory Prayer

Make a list of those you hope to reach with the Adventist message. Begin praying that God will bless them each day and open their hearts and minds to accept Jesus and embrace the message of His soon return.

Missionary Partners

Find another church member of the same gender and ask them to become your Missionary partner. They make a prayer list too. Each week you meet with them to pray for the people on each other's lists and to look for a way to demonstrate the love of Jesus to them.

Small Groups

As soon as possible begin a small group with your missionary partner and anyone else who will join, particularly anyone on your prayer lists. The group might be for friendship and prayer, ministry and/or Bible Studies. Some excellent Bible study guides are the Amazing Facts Basic Set and the Discover Bible Course.

Reaping Meetings

Bring your friends to reaping meetings at your church or alternate location to help them reach a decision. If meetings are not scheduled soon, hold your own meetings in a home setting or alternate location using videos or DVD materials. Then encourage your church or school leaders to host the eight-night satellite reaping meetings every November and April broadcast on the Hope Channel from one of the ten largest cities in the northwest. (See www.nwevangelism.org for more information and schedule.)

Bible Classes

Encourage all newly baptized members and interests to become a regular part of a Bible class on Sabbath morning during Sabbath School. Team up as a missionary partner with a new member as they make their own prayer lists of those they hope to reach with their newfound relationship with Jesus and His church. Help them continue the cycle.
